CAMIS (OSD)

Lorna A. DeLay
Senior Program Analyst
Office of the Secretary of Defense
Housing and Competitive Sourcing
703 602-3662 / 332-3662 /OSD/ATL(I&E)

CAMIS

- Objective:
  - The OSD Perspective
  - How will CAMIS Change

Purpose

- To discuss the uses and impacts of the information captured in DCAMIS and look ahead at the changes in data requirements and in DCAMIS which will occur in the next year

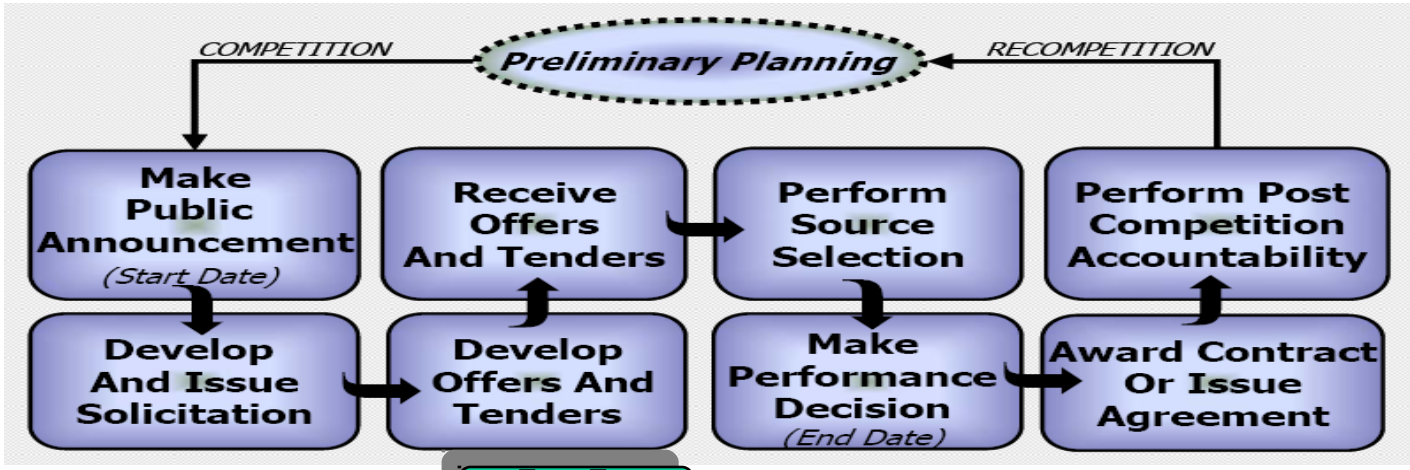
Topics

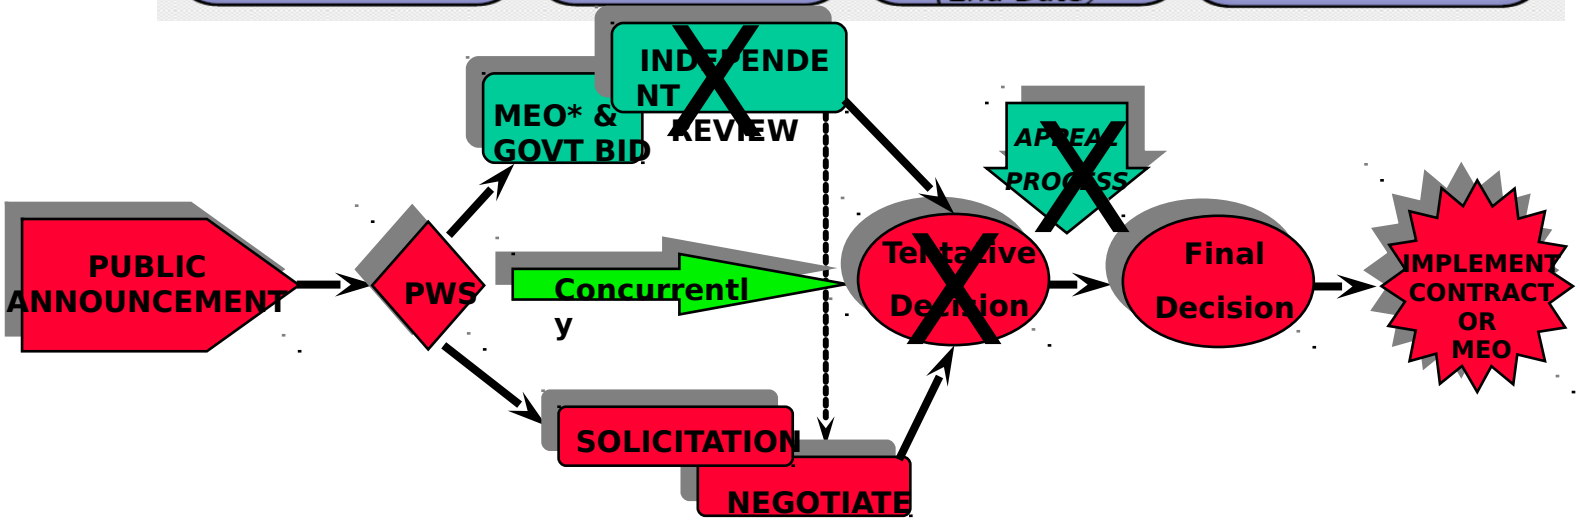
- What Happens to CAMIS Data?
- Structure of CAMIS Data Entry
- New vs Old A-76 Process

What Happens to CAMIS Data?

- Congressional hearings and reports
- GAO reports
- OMB reports and policy
- DoD reports
- News reports

New vs. Old A-76 Process





Changes in CAMIS

- Collection of study costs on a FY basis
  - Number of civilian regular pay hours expended
  - Average cost per hour of civilian pay and benefits
  - Number of overtime civilian hours paid
  - Cost of contract support
  - Other costs (travel, materials, etc.)

Changes in CAMIS

- Baseline costs required at record creation
  - Generated using winCOMPARE
  - Preliminary baseline annual civilian work years
  - Preliminary baseline annual military work years
  - Preliminary baseline cost totaled for all performance periods
  - Preliminary expected savings totaled for all performance periods
  - Adjusted figures for all of above

Changes in CAMIS

Fewer process dates required

Old	New
1. PWS Development Start	1. PWS Development Start
2. PWS Development Completion	2. PWS Development Completion
3. Management Plan Development Start	3. Solicitation Issue
4. Management Plan Development Completion	4. Solicitation Issue
5. Initial Independent Review Start	5. Performance Decision Date
6. Initial Independent Review Completion	6. Contract/MEO Start
7. Solicitation Issue
8. Solicitation Close
9. Tentative Decision
10. Public Review Period Start
11. Public Review Period End
12. Final Decision
13. Contract/MEO Start

Changes in CAMIS

- Download cost comparison data from winCOMPARE and import it to CAMIS
- Record MEO actual costs vs actual FTEs
- Post-MEO review?

QUESTIONS?